Dear Clerks of Session,

As we announced previously, we have taken steps to endow the Hudson-Langford Scholarship Fund. The fund commemorates two Presbyterian leaders who so admirably served African American congregations and left a legacy of community service. They loved people, were committed to involvement in the life of the community, cared for people as children of God, and preached the gospel of Jesus Christ. They served in various capacities in the Fairfield-McClelland and Trinity Presbyteries.

We are reminding congregations of our yearly request for a pledge contribution to support the scholarship fund. Any contribution that you give would be greatly appreciated, for your donation or pledge would allow the African American Caucus to award scholarships to deserving graduating seniors in African American congregations of Trinity Presbytery that meet the criteria.

The Hudson-Langford Scholarship program is a project of the African American Caucus of Trinity Presbytery. The goals of the program are:

- To increase the number of students from African American Presbyterian churches of Trinity Presbytery that pursue post high school education.
- To provide financial scholarships annually to one or more African American students with either a proven high school academic performance or potential and who exemplifies a dedication to community service that Reverend Hudson and Reverend Langford shared.
- To promote and honor the following characteristics embodied by Reverend James Hammie Hudson and Reverend Robert Langford: proclaiming God's love in Jesus Christ to others, caring for persons in the community regardless of religious affiliations, pursuing excellence in public and Christian education, and demonstrating a love for God through service to others.

Reverend James Hammie Hudson served as pastor of Calvary Presbyterian Church (USA) and Shiloh First Presbyterian Church (USA) both in Winnsboro, South Carolina. He was a strong advocate for education and the elderly. He cared about the entire community regardless of religious affiliation. He started a Saturday tutoring program to help students in the community achieve academic success. He loved the choir and shared the harvest from his garden with the community.

Reverend Robert Langford pastored Lebanon Presbyterian Church (USA), Ridgeway, South Carolina, Nazareth Presbyterian Church (USA), Winnsboro, South Carolina, and Little River Presbyterian Church (USA) Blair, South Carolina for over forty years. A loved figure in the community, he was known for visiting the sick and shut-in regardless of religious affiliation. He transported students to and from college, started scouting programs, and delivered Meals-on-Wheels throughout the community. He loved Vacation Bible School and implemented Vacation Bible School programs in many churches. He exhibited pure joy each year when students from throughout the community attended. Many were entertained by his music and the unusual variety of hymns he sang.

A complete packet of scholarship information is enclosed. The application is online at www.trinity-presbytery.org and can be completed on line in a PDF format. Please direct scholarship questions to Shirley M. Greene at (803) 337-3863. Please make your scholarship donation by December 30, 2016. Checks should be made payable to Trinity Presbytery and list "for" Hudson Langford Scholarship Fund. We ask that your church pledge $1000. to the scholarship fund next year. Our college students need your support and you will have the opportunity to raise the money throughout the year and present it at the 2017 African American Sunday Celebration.

Thank you for your support.

Yours in Christ,

Shirley M Greene, Moderator
