Michael Muot Put Ruai has worked in partnership with the Presbyterian Church of South Sudan (PCOSS) through the Education and Peacemaking Partnership to establish schools, to strengthen administration, improve existing schools, and teacher educational trainings. He partners with RECONCILE, International, to provide peacemaking and trauma mitigation training and intervention to end conflict. He also assists with distribution of emergency humanitarian relief for families of both PCOSS and the South Sudan Presbyterian Evangelical Church (SSPEC) seeking to alleviate the horrible suffering of the people because of the ongoing attacks on the civilian populations.
