NOMINATE YOUR FAVORITE COACH FOR THE TV30 2018 HIGH SCHOOL COACH OF THE YEAR AWARD

PLEASANTON, CA – (2.19.18) - “People don’t care how much you know until they know how much you care” - President Theodore Roosevelt. Did you have a high school Coach this academic year that made a difference in your sports training and will also have a positive impact on the rest of your life? Now you have a chance to thank that person by nominating him or her for the Tri-Valley Sports Final Outstanding High School Coach of the Year Award.

This is the fourth year for the Coach of the Year Award. Last year’s winner was volleyball coach Chris Kim from Amador Valley High School who was nominated by both students and parents for the work and inspiration he provided.

"This will be the eighth year of our outstanding high school athletic awards for students," said TV30 Executive Director Melissa Tench-Stevens. "The coach motivates and provides guidance to the students and many times their support is so powerful it influences the students for the rest of their lives. We look forward to recognizing this year’s winning coach for his or her dedication with this award."

It’s easy to nominate your favorite coach. Just go to tv30.org and click on the banner at the top of the website. Fill out the short form to nominate your favorite coach. The winner will be announced at this year’s Tri-Valley Sports Final Outstanding Athletic Awards Event taking place on May 24, 2018 at the Robert Livermore Community Center. The deadline to submit the nomination is at midnight on April 22, 2018.
