

Engineering Solutions in a Violent World is a program that fosters student and community discussions on violence and its relationship to technology, politics, and survival by presenting global, national, and local perspectives.

The 'A Violent World' forum enables the community to discuss one of the most critical issues we face in our society - violence and its effect on culture.

Engineering Solutions in

A VIOLENT WORLD

FALL QUARTER EVENTS

Thurs, Sept. 22 @ 6pm
Campus Center Great Room

Thurs, Oct. 20 @ 6pm
Todd Wehr Auditorium

Thurs, Nov. 3 @ 6pm
Todd Wehr Auditorium