

JARED PEATMAN, PH.D.

(SLP SUMMER SESSION FACULTY)

A 2002 graduate of Gettysburg College with a master's degree from Virginia Tech and Ph.D. from Texas A&M, Jared Peatman is the founder and president of Four Score Consulting, LLC, as well as a faculty member at the George Washington University Center for Excellence in Public Leadership and the Lincoln Leadership Institute at Gettysburg. He provides training events that uses history as a metaphor to examine current leadership and performance challenges.

Jared is the author of The Long Shadow of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address. For that project Jared was named the 2009 Organization of American Historians/Abraham Lincoln Bicentennial Commission Doctoral Fellow and in 2012 received the Hay-Nicolay Dissertation Prize for the best work on Abraham Lincoln or the Civil War. He is also the author, with Steven B. Wiley, of A Transformational Journey: Leadership Lessons from Gettysburg. He is currently working on a book about Joshua Chamberlain, the 20th Maine, and the Battle of Gettysburg.

Jared holds a certificate in of achievement in experiential education from the National Society of Experiential Education, and is certified to deliver the EQ-i2.0 and EQ360 Emotional Intelligence assessment.

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

WASHINGTON, DC

EXCLUSIVE SENIOR LEADER PROGRAM SUMMER SESSION

Dates: June 22-30 2017(Residential)

Exclusive Senior Leader Program Summer Session, with featured faculty, Jared Peatman, historian and certified experiential educator from the National Society for Experiential Education.

Join us for a unique learning experience with our Senior Leader Program, this summer June 22-30. The program is designed as a journey of exploration, as you reflect about your own leadership through the art of history. Imagine grasping and grounding all the Executive Core Qualifications (ECQs) in a way that is fun, creative and inspiring, supported by experts and your small group of peers.

TO LEARN MORE, VISIT
www.gwu.edu/cepl
OR CALL
202-994-5390

GEORGE WASHINGTON MT. VERNON SITE VISIT

We will visit President Lincoln's Cottage, the 1860s version of Camp David in Northwest D.C. where Abraham Lincoln drafted the Emancipation Proclamation and consider what we can learn from our sixteenth president about building coalitions. A trip to Gettysburg offers participants new insights into the critical competency of Driving Results. Lastly, an exploration of the way George Washington turned Mt. Vernon into a profitable estate offers a plethora of insights into Business Acumen and sustainability that are as relevant for leaders today as they were 200 years ago.

Here are some of the program highlights:

NIGHT AT THE MOVIES/LINCOLN COTTAGE SITE VISIT PREPARATION

- Participants will analyze the common elements of great leaders, and consider the implications for their own leadership style.

LINCOLN COTTAGE SITE VISIT

- Participants will analyze and reflect upon the interplay of the five ECQs.
- Participants will explore ways to effectively build coalitions.
- Participants will consider the role of emotional intelligence in leadership, and practice strategies to boost their own emotional intelligence.

Center for Excellence in Public Leadership

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

CHAMBERLAIN AMONG THE MUTINEERS

- Participants will identify the primary causes of employee disengagement;
- Participants will identify the primary causes of employee engagement;
- Participants will identify strategies for reengaging disengaged employees.

GETTYSBURG SITE

- Participants will explore the competency of Results Driven and practice employing the sub competencies of that qualification by evaluating the decisions made by leaders from all levels at the Battle of Gettysburg.

GEORGE WASHINGTON MT. VERNON

- Participants will explore the sub competencies of business acumen, including financial management, human resource management, and technology management by examining the way George Washington turned Mt. Vernon profitable.
- Participants will consider sustainability and how they can take steps to ensure the sustainability of their operations.

Other learning segments on strategic leadership, workforce trends and analytics, cyber security and innovation

Target Audience: Senior managers and executives in the federal government, or comparable level military, state, and local officials who wish to enhance their leadership potential or prepare for the Senior Executive Service.

Dates: June 22 -30 (Summer 2017)

Intensive Residential Format: all day from 8:30 a.m. - 9:00 p.m.

Cost: $8,950 (Cost of residency, meals and transportation to all site visits included!)

We offer a 10% discount for agencies contributing more than 5 individuals and to GW-CEPL alumni*

CENTER FOR EXCELLENCE IN PUBLIC LEADERSHIP
2033 K Street, NW, Suite 240, Washington, DC 20052

www.gwu.edu/cepl

202-994-5389

202-994-5390

twitter.com/gwucepl

linkedin.com/in/gwucepl

facebook.com/GWU.CEPL/

