WELCOME

Michael Davies

We recently hired four new firefighters and in the upcoming newsletters we will be introducing these firefighters with a short bio. This week, we feature Probationary Firefighter Michael Davies. Mike was born and raised in Culver City and moved to London, England shortly after graduating high school. He worked as a DJ and producer for the BBC during his time in England. After returning to the United States Mike became a police officer with the Hawthorne Police Department. Mike became a paramedic and joined the SWAT team while with Hawthorne P.D. He found himself drawn to fire and emergency medical responses and began his training and education to switch careers to the Fire Service. He joins the El Segundo Fire Department with a wealth of knowledge and experience. We feel fortunate to have him as part of our team.
