Jump start your shop manuals!

Need help getting started with your shop's handbook, policy or procedural manuals? Already have them? When was the last time they were updated? Join the Lincoln area this February to get your shop manuals in line!

Clear policies and procedures are an essential element to creating common practices and expectations among your employees. This workshop will help you to start building your manuals, as well as compare revise and update the manuals your shop has on file and how to keep them up to date! Come prepared with the manuals you currently have on file, as well as any resources you may want to share with the other attendees.
