

2019 Educator Scholarship Application

The Midwest Auto Care Alliance, through their Technicians of Tomorrow Educational Foundation, is awarding a VISION scholarship to an Educator. This scholarship covers a 4-day VISION Power Pass. Scholarship applications must be submitted no later than January 11, 2019. The Awards Committee will review all applications and base their recommendations on expressed financial need, clear objective for use of the scholarship and goals for career development. All applicants will be notified of the committee selection and the decision will be final.

Selection Criteria Applicants must be educators in a high school, votech, or college program within the United States. Scholarship provides for a 4-day Power Pass and the scholarship recipient will automatically be registered for the all-day Friday Educator Think Tank program during VISION, in addition to other courses selected by the recipient. Recipients are responsible for their own transportation. Scholarship is non-transferable. Completed applications must be received by January 11, 2019 to be considered.
