

The Ed Schaeffer Memorial Scholarship was established in 2017 to commemorate the life of Ed Schaeffer and to continue his legacy. With Ed's strong leadership, he was one of the gentlemen who helped ASA Kansas City (now MWACA) begin to grow to what it is today. As the association continued to progress, Ed was there to help whenever needed.

The Ed Schaeffer Memorial Scholarship is awarded annually for a recipient to attend management training at the VISION HiTech Training & Expo. Candidates for this scholarship must meet all of the requirements listed below and submit all requested information to be reviewed by the selection committee. Scholarship includes a weekend training package and two nights hotel. Transportation to and from the event is the responsibility of the recipient.

The ideal candidate must demonstrate a desire to attend management training and exhibit a financial need to attend VISION.
