

NOW IS THE TIME TO LEARN ABOUT FOOD INSECURITY AND WORK TO FIGHT IT!

A Place at the Table shows us how hunger poses serious economic, social and cultural implications for our nation, and that it could be solved once and for all, if the American public decides — as they have in the past — that making healthy food available and affordable is in the best interest of us all.

Special Screening

Critically acclaimed documentary directed by Kristi Jacobson and Lori Silverbush.

SPONSORED BY THE INTERFAITH FOOD ALLIANCE

View the movie, join in a round table discussion about what we can do to combat hunger in our community and share a community meal.

When: Sunday, April 22, 2017 2:00 pm

Where: Morrisville United Methodist Church

501 W. Maple Avenue, Morrisville, PA 19067

There is no charge for this event, but please bring a cleaning product or personal hygiene item for our food pantry.

Special events for children will be available and all are welcome!

The Interfaith Food Alliance works to alleviate food insecurity in our community through Education, Service, and Advocacy. The IFA operates The Family Backpack Center, a food center for students of the Morrisville School District, and their families, who have been identified as food insecure by school nurses and guidance counselors. An opportunity to tour The Family Backpack Food Center will be available!
