*Can you name Non-Economic Solutions
in a Bad Economic Situation?*

The current recession in America has caused sweeping changes in the economy. Some people have suffered systematically more than others. This book was inspired via thought and discussion about people coping in challenging economic times. Hopefully, this book will inspire thought and discussion on behalf of the reader.

During a recession, money and opportunities may flow differently than in times of economic prosperity and expansion in the economy. Operating on the premise that God loves us all, I gave thought to non-economic solutions in a bad economic situation. I also gave thought to economic tools that were perhaps undervalued.

Perspective is important as we address our individual and collective challenges in today's world.

Hopefully, Get Free for Free will be easy reading that will inspire thought and discussion to help us live with joy amidst challenges.

A Letter of Welcome from Our Leader

Praise the Lord and welcome to all of the delegates, members and friends of the International Fellowship of Faith Ministries! It is our joy to have you as a part of this unique and anointed international mission which for ten years has been preaching, teaching and healing around the world.

Because of God's grace, your prayers and your support, we have been able to grow from a simple concept to real life chapters and contacts in nearly thirty countries. It is our hope and desire that in the next ten years, we will be able to go wider in our range, deeper in our roots and higher in our reach.

Just as this year's theme suggests, we too would love to move beyond where we are to where we are supposed to be. We invite you to come along with us as we run on to see what the end is going to be.

May God bless you, your family and your ministry. Once again, welcome.

Yours in Christ,

Dr. C. Dexter Wise III
International President and Founder

Highlights of a Hallelujah History

“Ministries” is in the middle of our church’s name (Faith Ministries Church). However, from the very beginning, “missions” has been at the center of all we do. Whether it has been outreach to the homeless in shelters, preaching to inmates in prisons, feeding the hungry by the hundreds every month, visiting the sick confined to hospitals and homes, or spreading the gospel door to door in our community, we have always had a heart for outreach and missions.

Still, in an increasingly visible manner, this inbred penchant for missions began to crystallize between 2005 and 2007, when on the last Sunday in July during those years, we celebrated Missions Sunday. Little did we know that these simple annual days focusing primarily on local missions would grow into significant international missions.

In a true sense, that leap from local to international began with a trip Dr. Wise and now Rev. Tobias Houpe made to West Africa in 2006. During that trip while having a conversation on a ferry off the coasts of Freetown, Sierra Leone, the vision for IFFM was birthed in the heart of our pastor. Ten years later, we have seen it grow into a global faith phenomenon of preaching, teaching and healing.

Here are some of the highlights of what has become a brief, but blessed hallelujah history.

Rev. Tobias Houpe met Pastor Dan Kemoh who is a Sierra Leonean pastors in Columbus, OH. The two collaborated on making a trip to Sierra Leone to see how Faith Ministries could do mission work there.

2005

In March of 2005, Rev. Tobias Houpe and Pastor Dan Kemoh travel to Sierra Leone. While there, they sought opportunities for ministry and visited several villages. The IFFM vision still had not been formed at this point.

2006

Dr. Wise travels to and ministers in Sierra Leone, West Africa where he met up with Rev. Tobias Houpe who had already been there for several days. It was on his departure from Sierra Leone that the vision of IFFM was revealed to Dr. Wise during a conversation on a ferry with a local pastor named Jonathan Fumba.

After leaving Sierra Leone, Dr. Wise flew across the continent of Africa to preach in Kenya, East Africa. He was in Africa for ten days with only one suit and one shirt since his luggage did not arrive in Africa with him. He didn’t get his bags until he got back to the states 10 days later!

In 2007, based on the vision received during the 2006 trip, Dr. Wise called a meeting to introduce the concept and launch ministry of IFFM. The theme of that initial meeting was: “Getting Ready to Reach the World.” Ministers and members of Faith Ministries attended, as well as, international pastors and lay people from around the city.

Mark Caldwell, who attended the launch meeting of IFFM, had previously planned a trip Ghana. While there, he gave an IFFM information packet to a preacher he “randomly” met named Michael Nwoso. This was the first contact of Africa and IFFM.

12 Not that I have already attained, or am already perfected; but I press on, that I may lay hold of that for which Christ Jesus has also laid hold of me. 13 Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead, 14 I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. TEL INTERNATIONAL

MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Putting our faith into action is at the very heart of our Christian calling to be in mission, and reaching out in mission locally and globally. Regardless of where we are in our spiritual journey, as Christians, we are privileged and at the same time expected to be active participants in God's mission work in the world. Whether young or aged, rich or poor, man or woman, lay or clergy, we are called by God to serve.

Mission work is about praying, giving, and doing to advance the Kingdom of God here on earth. The world in which we live continues to change dramatically. With more people living in a more complex world, human needs seem more complex and pressing than ever. However, people's basic physical and spiritual needs are the same today as they have always been. Answer the call today and fulfill Jesus' mandate to be in Mission.
