Documenting Your Faith

YOU can do it however you want, which goes for me as well. This means that some weeks I may be in the margin of my Journaling Bible, some weeks on a sheet of paper that I add into my existing planner system, some weeks on post it notes (I LOVE post-it notes) and/or some weeks on 3 x 5 cards*. There is no wrong or right way to document or illustrate your faith. The important thing is that you do it and that you work on creating a habit of doing it.

Here is the verse for week two of 2017:

“Finally, be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power. Put on the full armor of God, so that you can take your stand against the devil’s schemes.” Ephesians 6:10-11

It is our responsibility to be prepared to act/move. In our walk, we will battle against spiritual darkness and we must depend on God’s strength and use every piece of His armor to move through what we are going through. In addition to those notes, I wrote out the following in the margin of my Journaling Bible:

Week 2 1/8-1/14

Finally, be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power. Put on the full armor of God, so that you can take your stand against the devil’s schemes. Ephesians 6:10-11 NIV

Notes: In our walk, we will battle against evil forces . To be able to withstand and move through the attacks in the spiritual realm, we must depend on God’s strength and use every piece of His armor. We must be prepared to respond and move.
