

NASA Wallops Flight Facility Visitor Center Smartphones for Science

Saturday, March 25th
11:00-12:00

Want to be a citizen Earth scientist?

Download the GLOBE Observer app and join us to learn how to record sky observations to help scientists understand the sky from above and below! Aspiring scientists of all ages are welcome to meet NASA Wallops Flight Facility's Senior Earth Science Education and Communication Specialist, Brian Campbell, as he helps you explore how you can be a part of scientific discovery!

DO SCIENCE IN THE PALM OF YOUR HAND
