

The Cultural Landscape Foundation Presents

Lawrence Halprin Symposium

Landscape as Catalyst:

Lawrence Halprin's Legacy and Los Angeles

NOVEMBER 04, 2017 | A+D MUSEUM | LOS ANGELES

The Cultural Landscape Foundation, in collaboration with the A+D Architecture and Design Museum, has organized a public, daylong symposium that will examine the influences and accomplishments of renowned landscape architect Lawrence Halprin (1916 - 2009) and his impact on the renaissance of downtown Los Angeles. Nationally recognized speakers include Kenneth I. Helphand, FASLA, James A. Garland, Donlyn Lyndon, FAIA, Buzz Yudell, FAIA, Antonio Pacheco, Robert Maguire III, Janice Ross, Steve Koch, FASLA, and Charles A. Birnbaum, FASLA.

Held as part of a three-month series of public events honoring Halprin's rich local and national legacy, this symposium will be suitable for enthusiasts of Modernist design and landscape architecture, practitioners and urban planners, fans of Los Angeles, and those interested in the city's history.

Space is Limited

For a complete list of sponsors, click here