EARTH WORKS GARDEN: This community project was developed and run by the Capuchin Soup Kitchen. This organization provides vegetables to the poor throughout the Detroit area. It is located in Detroit at Mt. Elliot, near the Meldrum Capuchin Soup Kitchen. Students should plan to wear tennis shoes (no flip-flops are allowed), pants, and bring a long sleeve shirt to work in. Gardeners should expect to get dirty! What a great opportunity for the kids to learn about organic gardening. This would be a great project in April or early May. Please call Shane Bernareo for additional program details at (313) 579-2100, ext. 204.
