

For Your Information

The purpose of this page is to communicate news about our church family that might be of general interest. This is not meant to be a prayer request forum. Rather, it will share a word of congratulations, a note of sympathy or brief information about a specific situation in one of our church families.

The week of September 9, 2018

We have nothing to report at this time.

Did we miss something?
Please email the church office and we will include the information in next week's edition.
