The REPORTER
Nickel Plate Heritage Railroad Inc. has tentatively been awarded the contract to operate the Hoosier Heritage Port Authority line. What does that mean?
What is the Nickel Plate Heritage Railroad Inc.?
Formerly the Heritage Depot Inc. and before that the Arcadia Arts & Heritage Initiative, this “new” entity will evolve from this community-focused nonprofit. A business name change will be filed with appropriate legal agencies as a newly expanded nonprofit that remains focused on the heritage of the area.

Who will “own” the Nickel Plate Heritage Railroad, Inc.?
It will be a charitable nonprofit eligible for tax-deductible gifts and managed by a board of directors that will include former members from the Heritage Depot Inc. as well as new members interested in the community development of the area and cultural heritage railroad operation.

The board will become the trustees of the programming operations, the depot and select pieces of equipment to deliver a safe, entertaining rail operation as well as other related programming.
What role is Hamilton County Tourism taking in this initiative?
Technical assistant, program advisor, fundraiser, guide, grant writer, marketing and communications advisor – same role the organization had with the Nickel Plate Arts initiative, the 2016 bicentennial, early stages of Grand Park development, the Noblesville Cultural Arts Commission, Westfield downtown project, etc.

Who else is involved?
Rail operations will be managed by Thomas Hoback of the Atlanta Pacific LLC railroad. Tom is semi-retired but has a long and storied career as a quality railroad operator, including ownership of the Indiana Railroad.

Hamilton County, Noblesville complete final phase, open Riverwalk

Dillinger cuts ribbon on vision

Friday morning marked the successful completion of a project envisioned by County Commissioner Steve Dillinger more than 15 years ago.
For those not familiar with the Riverwalk, it is a pedestrian walkway along the east bank of White River running six blocks from approximately Clinton Street on the north to Division Street on the south skirting Noblesville's downtown area.
At the north end the walk connects to the pedestrian bridge over the river and State Road 19 where walkers enter Forest Park. There hikers can access trails north to Potters Bridge or west to Morse Dam. At the south end, near Division Street, Riverwalk will connect to the planned Midland Trail, an east-west linear parkway that will eventually allow joggers, bikers and walkers a route as far as Westfield.
Dillinger had the idea after seeing

Hamilton County and Noblesville officials came together Friday to celebrate the completion of the final portion of the Riverwalk trail project. The third phase of the project, which began in November 2016, provides the missing link of the half-mile trail along the east side of White River.
Construction on the Riverwalk, a joint project between the city and county, began in 2008.
“We worked very hard and together on this project to create a popular amenity in the heart of our city,” said Mayor John Ditslear. “The Riverwalk provides pedestrians and bicyclists the opportunity to travel from downtown into Forest Park without using streets while enjoying the beauty of the White River and downtown Noblesville.”

HSE scores big with climate survey

By LARRY LANNAN
www.LarryInFishers.com

Indiana State University Professor Steve Gruenert has spoken before many school boards and provided information on school corporation climate surveys. When Gruenert spoke to the Hamilton Southeastern School Board on Wednesday evening he had some very good news.

"I've done a lot of research over the years and I'm in the company of what I believe to be the schools with the best, highest scores that I've ever worked with," Dr. Gruenert said. "My challenge now is, how do you make the best better?"

The professor studied the school culture and climate of the HSE Schools in the final months of the 2016-2017 school year, including the impact of the climate on staff collaboration. Gruenert said the research shows a clear connection between a school's culture and the level of student achievement – the better the culture, the better students will achieve.

The study was based on a survey of the school staff. A 30 percent return rate on those surveys is normal, which would provide enough data to compile a report. HSE Schools staff returned surveys at a rate of 70 to 80 percent.

The level of collaboration is so high that Dr. Gruenert recommends professional development should be done in-house.

"You seem to have a family here," Dr. Gruenert told board members.

You can read the climate survey report submitted to the board at this link.

No one injured in Carmel U.S. 31 truck fire

Carmel emergency personnel responded to a fully involved semi fire on U.S. 31 near 131st Street just before 4 a.m. Friday morning. According to the Carmel Fire Department, there were no injuries involved in the fire and the semi was the only vehicle involved in the incident.

NICKEL PLATE

Also involved is Wiley Brown. Wiley works with his father to operate the Central Indiana Western Railroad in Lapel.

How far will the train go?

That is being determined, but depending on funding availability likely in the first year it will run from about 206th Street to Atlanta and back, with various stops in Cicero and Arcadia for special programs. The goal is, as soon as possible, to ensure the train goes to Noblesville’s northwest side of the town square.

What will happen next?

The initiative needs three things: 1) funding to support the rail line restoration of at least eight of the 12 miles (minimum $500,000); 2) once that happens, a contract with the HHPA that satisfies both parties (the contract will be signed with the Atlanta Pacific Railroad), 3) the real work begins:

- Rail restoration will begin in order to accomplish this over the winter and into next spring, weather permitting
- Securing locomotives, passenger cars and a generator car
- The nonprofit’s work will begin in earnest; a staff will be retained and trained
- Marketing initiatives will begin
- Ideally, tours and soft opening Memorial Day weekend 2018 with Friday-Saturday and sometimes Sunday excursions but that is pending funding and construction

Why do this?

Hamilton County Tourism and its development partners believe preservation of this cultural heritage asset will serve as a positive economic catalyst for northeastern Hamilton County.

Other information

- The amount of loan needed is approximately $1.2 to $1.5 million
- The depot will serve as the offices of the operation, along with an arrangement for office space in one of Mr. Muffin’s buildings.
- The goal is to run up to 200 passengers at one time with the first round of equipment.
- There will be family-focused trains, adult-only wine and cheese trains and trains that are for older kids and adults such as ghost trains. Other ideas are in development as well, but they require partnerships and those proposals have not been made.
- There will be opportunities for sponsorships of the various programs, with recognition on and outside the trains, and possible program partnership opportunities (character trains, etc.).
- Trains like Thomas the Tank Engine or Polar Express will not be run, as those require licenses, and they are not available.
- The goal is to attract between 30,000 and 50,000 passengers annually within the first two years (comparable to a railroad passenger service).
- The goal is to start in June 2018, but that depends on the financing package and the time it takes to restore the track.
- Estimated annual operating expenses will be about $750,000, about half rail-related expenses and about half nonprofit-related expenses once it’s fully operational.
- That means there will be a need to fundraise, sponsorship raise, partner raise and have adequate ticket sales to support this opportunity.

Tourism college courses now available for Westfield students

The REPORTER

Students can learn the real world of hospitality, tourism and management and earn up to 18 college credits through Hamilton County's Hospitality Immersion Certificate Program. This allows students to gain valuable paid field experience and a chance to work alongside one of the most vibrant tourism markets in the Midwest.

The pilot program, open to Westfield High School students, is a partnership between Westfield Washington Schools, Ivy Tech Community College, IUPUI's Department of Tourism, Conventions & Event Management (TCEM) and Hamilton County Tourism Inc.

The program allows students to choose six courses that will be taught by academics and industry professionals in areas of sports event management, special event planning, guest services, lodging operations, event marketing, food and beverage

Introductory classes will begin for students their sophomore year and they will join the program their junior or senior year. All courses transfer from Ivy Tech Community College's Hospitality Administration program to Indiana University's TCEM program at IUPUI. Credits may transfer to other universities.

As part of the program, students may opt to work in hospitality, tourism or event business during the summer. Many industry partners have agreed to be a part of the program by offering student internships.

VISION

The official opening Friday morning marked the successful completion of a project envisioned by County Commissioner Steve Dillinger more than 15 years ago. Dillinger (left) spoke at Friday's ribbon cutting ceremony along with fellow Hamilton County Commissioner Mark Heirbrandt.

what other communities have done with their riverfronts. The most attractive in the state is probably the Ohio Riverfront walkway at Madison. While White River doesn't compare with the Ohio, you have to work with what you've got. A Riverwalk Committee was formed to spearhead the project, investigate funding possibilities and generally plan the campaign.

Not so many years ago Noblesville's riverfront was far from a scenic attraction. Longtime residents will remember that the backside of a lumber yard, National Guard Armory vehicles, a tire store and a gas station were among the sights you saw along the east bank. The river was not regarded as an asset.

Today, there is still work to be done, but progress can be seen. A city "pocket park" is found near the former lumberyard. The west lawn of the county Government and Judicial Center takes up the block from Logan to Conner Streets, and Riverwalk now goes along the park-like Riverside Cemetery.

The project has been a joint venture by the city and county. It's worked well, and now more is planned. The county will expand the Judicial Center with a pleasing new west front and a firefighters' memorial. Riverview Hospital plans a new building on the west side of the river, and of course there is the city's Federal Hill Commons just across Road 19.

So, now we can expect to see local residents enjoying a walk on the riverfront where a few years ago no one would have dreamed of visiting.

That was a very good idea, Steve.

RIVERWALK

walkway near White River in downtown Noblesville while visiting Madison, Ind., in 2000. A committee of residents was formed the following year, but the recession and prioritizing infrastructure projects took precedence until 2008.

"This is a big day for Hamilton County, for Noblesville, and certainly for the restoration of what is happening to the west side of Noblesville and the river. I couldn't be more pleased and happy to be part of this ribbon cutting and opening of the Riverwalk, which ties everything together," Dillinger said.

Phase One of Riverwalk was a county project and consisted of creating a trail from the county employee parking lot east, underneath the Conner Street/State Road 32 Bridge and back up to the Hamilton County Judicial Center.

Phase Two of Riverwalk was a city project, extending the trail under the Logan Street Bridge and up to where it now connects with the pedestrian bridge to Forest Park, which also connects to trails at Potter's Bridge and Field Drive.

Phase Three connected the two completed portions behind the Judicial Center. It also joins with the City of Noblesville's southern portion extension, which runs from Maple Avenue to Division Street. Construction will begin later this month. Phase Three also will be home to the Hamilton County Fallen Firefighters Memorial.

"This isn't the end of this particular project. We are also looking at enhancements to go along here at Logan Street that will have a lighting enhancement piece to it that I think will beautify all of Noblesville as well," said Commissioner Mark Heirbrandt. "We are going to continue to work to make Noblesville a better place."

Friday night football - Week 2

Defense sends Carmel past Noblesville

The Greyhounds' defense ruled at Carmel Stadium Friday night, as the 'Hounds beat rival Noblesville 31-0 in an all-county Week 2 match-up.

Carmel, ranked No. 3 in Class 6A, needed until the second quarter to get on the board, but its first points came from the defense, as Nate Frey took an interception return 50 yards to the end zone early in the period. Less than two minutes later, Dylan Downing caught a 46-yard pass from Jake McDonald, and took it into score.

The Greyhounds kept the momentum going into the second half. Downing jogged in a short touchdown run midway through the third quarter, then Connor Coghlan added a 25-yard field goal. Coghlan had also made three extra-point kicks.

Carmel finished its scoring just a few seconds into the fourth quarter, with Atticus Clouse taking a 27-yard pass from McDonald into the end zone. The resultant extra-point kick made Coghlan 4-for-4 on the night.

McDonald had a solid passing night, going 9-for-15 and compiling 217 yards. Clouse had four receptions, including the touchdown. Camari Hunt led the Greyhounds' rushing with 64 yards.

Carmel's defense held the Millers to 28 rushing yards; Luke Blevins picked up 23 yards to lead Noblesville's running game. Grant Gremel passed the ball well, making 13 of 25 completions for 109 yards. Anthony Nale had five receptions, while Carson Sanders caught four passes.

The Greyhounds picked up their first win of the year after dropping their opener at Louisville Trinity last Friday. Carmel will begin Metropolitan Conference play next Friday by hosting 6A No. 4 Center Grove in a re-match of last year's 6A state Sheridan’s offense was relentless Friday night as the Blackhawks took care of old rival Clinton Central 56-6 at Bud Wright Stadium. Believe it or not, Sheridan football coach Bud Wright said his team "started out slow" in its Friday night against old rival Clinton Central.

Once the Blackhawks got going, they couldn't be stopped. Sheridan piled up 28 points in the first quarter, and cruised to a 56-6 victory over the Bulldogs at Bud Wright Stadium. This was the first win of the season for the Class 1A No. 10 Blackhawks, after they dropped their opener at Western Boone last week.

Sheridan is 1-1 for the season, and 1-0 in the Hoosier Heartland Conference.

Gunnar Williams scored three touchdowns for the 'Hawks, two on medium-sized rushes and the third towards the end of the first period on a 44-yard interception return. The Blackhawks' defense stepped up in the final 30 seconds of that period to force two takeaways that resulted in touchdowns; Joe Callahan ran in from 16 yards to get the first score, and Williams' pick six was the second.

"We played pretty good," said Wright. Sheridan added two more touchdowns in both the second and third quarters. Cole Cummings caught a long pass from Drake Delph to reach the end zone midway through the second, and Nick Burnell ended the half with a long TD run.

In the third quarter, Cameron Hovey gave the Blackhawks a special teams touchdown by taking a punt return 66 yards into the end zone. James Manis finished the Sheridan scoring with a short run midway through the period. Williams kicked successful extra points for the first seven touchdowns, with freshman Cole Jackson making the eighth extra point.

Callahan emerged as the leading rusher for Sheridan, with 92 yards in 13 carries. The Blackhawks continue HHC play next week when they travel to Tri-Central.

Westfield's Friday night return to Lucas Oil Stadium followed an almost parallel script as the game the Shamrocks played there last November.

That's a good thing, because the story ends with Westfield winning - just like it did last November in the 5A state championship game.

The 'Rocks came from behind to take the lead, then used its defense to hold on for a 21-14 victory Friday over Southport at Lucas Oil. With that, Westfield improved its record to 2-0 for the season.

The Shamrocks trailed 14-0 at halftime, but came back and had the game tied by the end of the third period. Nate Froelich's short touchdown run got Westfield on the board, then quarterback Cameron Nance found Pat Beam for an 18-yard scoring play. Both times Alex Bales made the extra-point kick afterwards.

The Nance-Beam connection lit up again early in the fourth period, when the two teamed up for a 27-yard score with 10:37 remaining. Bales converted this extra point as well. Westfield then made a big fourth-down hold with 3:25 left, and that allowed them to keep the lead and eventually get the win.

Nance passed a fine game, making 11 of 18 completions for 138 yards. Froelich carried the ball 20 times and gained 95 yards, while Nance traveled 62 yards in 15 rushes.

Westfield travels to Zionsville next week, taking on the Class 5A No. 5 Eagles to begin Hoosier Crossroads Conference play.

With the Bishop's Cannon on the line, the Guerin Catholic football team exploded in the fourth quarter.

The Golden Eagles scored three touchdowns in that period to shake off Lafayette Central Catholic 28-14 Friday night at the Eagles Nest. Not only did Guerin win the traveling trophy for which the two schools play every year, but it also improved to 2-0 for the season.

The Golden Eagles led 7-0 at halftime, with Thomas Kaser making a one-yard jog into the end zone early in the quarter. The Class 1A No. 6 Knights finally tied the game up in the third quarter, but GC answered right away with a 10-yard passing touchdown from Luke Keller to Bernie McGinnis just 12 seconds into the fourth.

LCC tied the game up again shortly thereafter, but Guerin Catholic took care of business on the ground late in the quarter to seal the win. Dylan Crossen and Keller made short touchdown runs, with Crossen giving GC the lead and Keller expanding it with 1:03 left to play. Kaser helped out by going 4-for-4 in extra-point kicks.

Kaser had a fantastic rushing game, ringing up 216 yards on 30 carries. Keller completed 13 of 25 passes for 132 yards, with McGinnis making five catches.

Guerin Catholic goes back on the road next week, traveling to Heritage Christian.
