This Web Event is a part of a series focusing on family and youth involvement in evaluation. This event will focus on practical, “how to” strategies for involving families in the evaluation of system of care expansion efforts. It is designed for individuals fulfilling multiple roles in system of care expansion grant sites, including directors, managers, evaluators, family-run organizations, and family leaders, to explore the implementation of family-driven practice in evaluation.

Presenters will:

• Provide examples of how family voice can be incorporated throughout all phases of the evaluation process

• Highlight specific, innovative strategies used by system of care grant sites to engage families in evaluation

• Discuss ways in which grantees can adapt these approaches in their own sites

This Web Event is a part of a series focusing on family and youth involvement in evaluation. This event will focus on practical, “how to” strategies for involving families in the evaluation of system of care expansion efforts. It is designed for individuals fulfilling multiple roles in system of care expansion grant sites, including directors, managers, evaluators, family-run organizations, and family leaders, to explore the implementation of family-driven practice in evaluation.

Presenters will:

• Provide examples of how family voice can be incorporated throughout all phases of the evaluation process

• Highlight specific, innovative strategies used by system of care grant sites to engage families in evaluation

• Discuss ways in which grantees can adapt these approaches in their own sites