

ARE YOU GAMING YOUR GDPR COMPLIANCE?

A recent WatchGuard survey shows that most businesses are late getting started with compliance activities. With potential fines in the millions, waiting is a risky play. What's your strategy?

1

28% of those surveyed say that their organization does not need to comply

2

37% are not sure if they need to or not

3

44% of respondents who think they need to comply, don't know how close they are to completion

RULE TESTER

Remains uninformed and tries to get concessions later

END-GAME RALLY

Counts on a last minute effort because they don't know how to start

Those working towards compliance estimate their organization will be ready in SEVEN MONTHS, on average

51% of respondents agree that they will need to make significant changes to their IT infrastructure

48% may seek assistance from outside their organization

86% of respondents who need to comply with the GDPR have a plan or project underway

Top 3 compliance-related security measures:
71% Firewall, 63% VPN, and 58% Encryption

MAKING STEADY PROGRESS

Understands the time and effort needed to overhall security processes

65% of all respondents believe that their organization is required to appoint a Data Protection Officer

GDPR ACTIONS

DATA BREACH NOTIFICATIONS

Within 72 HOURS

EXPLICIT CONSENT

Must be given at the time that data is collected

DATA PROTECTION OFFICER

Responsible for GDPR filings, and impact assessments, etc

WORLDWIDE FINES

Fines for non-compliance can be assessed up to 4% worldwide revenue or €20 million, whichever is higher.

DO YOU NEED A COMPLIANCE PLAN? KEY QUESTIONS TO ASK

Does my company have a presence in an EU country?

Is my data unable to be deleted or transferred at customer request?

Is my organization processing personal data from European residents?

Am I using 3rd parties to process personal information?

Is my data unencrypted at any stage?

Is personal data on EU citizens processed or stored outside of the EU?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, it's time to start working towards GDPR Compliance.

GDPR IS FOR EVERYONE

Any organization, including those selling B2B and B2C, that processes personal data from a natural EU citizen must comply by:

May 25, 2018

Get started with WatchGuard's GDPR Readiness eBook and Planning Checklist.

Visit www.watchguard.com/gdpr

