

The Future of Work

Economic and technological mega trends are creating space for leaders to rethink the role of organizations and leadership. Join us for a future-focused panel on the changing nature of leadership, work, and Transformative Workplaces in North Iowa and beyond.

Roxanne Pals, founder of 3 Consulting, will moderate a panel discussion with thought leaders Carole and David Schwinn, authors of The Transformative Workplace, and Dr. Chris Groscurth, senior Gallup leadership advisor and founder of leadership4ir.com.

The panel will provide context on the workplace of the future, and address the role that leadership and the Transformative Workplace play in maximizing the possibilities of the next economic era. Implications for workforce planning and economic development in North Iowa will be explored through table discussion and report out.

Brought to you by Employers Council of Iowa, Human Resources Association of North Iowa, and the North Central Iowa Alliance.
