

SLES STUDENTS and SUMMER PROGRAMS

Allison Lowe participated in a program at Mobile Infirmary that allowed her the opportunity volunteer in different areas of the hospital.

Kate Symons shadowed Dr. Mark Taylor, a Physiologist at University of South Alabama College of Medicine.

Graham Driskell joined Youth Leadership and participated in a three day intensive focusing on the arts, wildlife, business, and community service of Mobile.

Emmy Musial attended the Naval Academy's Summer Seminar: a 6 day seminar where she lived in Midshipmen dorms and got a taste of life at the Academy including classes, morning workouts, and physical training.

Caitlin Smith participated in the Summer Scrubs Program.

Landon Connell participated in Alabama Boys State: a mock government program that demonstrates politics and governmental work.

Becca Clark participated in the B.E.S.T. summer MathLab robotics workshop at Faulkner State.

Kane McReadie attended the Washington Youth Summit on the Environment(WYSE), an educational program at George Mason University that challenged students and let them hear from experts and people across all fields of environmental study.

Zach Norman SolidWorks workshop at Faulkner State University for Robotics.

Virginia Grace Merrick attended the Envision Junior National Youth Leaders Conference in Washington, D.C. The program helps to develop leadership skills while students participate in simulations, projects and focus groups in a fun and interactive way.