ABOUT ARW

The Arts, Recreation and Worship Conference is an experiential 5 day event focused on recreation, worship, community, creativity and the arts. It is designed for those who want to deepen their creativity, broaden their leadership skills and experience personal spiritual renewal. In addition to whole group worship and recreation events, participants select from a wide range of unique courses. ARW is connected to the Presbyterian Church (USA) and welcomes pastors, educators, youth workers, church volunteers, camp and conference professionals, recreation workers of all denominations and anyone interested in the arts, recreation and worship to participate in the workshop.

WORSHIP LEADER

Lisle Gwynn Garrity

Lisle Gwynn Garrity is an artist, retreat leader, and worship consultant working within the PC(USA). Through her ministry, A Sanctified Art, she uses visual art to help communities explore and express faith. She holds master's degrees in divinity and practical theology from Columbia Theological Seminary in Atlanta. Originally from Black Mountain, NC, Lisle currently lives in Pine Lake, GA, a small lake community just east of the hustle and bustle of Atlanta. Lisle is passionate about creative worship, the interplay of words and images, yoga, and long walks with her pup, Max.

MUSIC LEADER

Hugh Donnelly

Hugh Donnelly grew up in Prince Edward Island, on Canada's east coast. While enjoying some live music one night in an Irish pub during his university years, Hugh made the decision to teach himself how to play the guitar. He has a passion for congregational singing, and has been invited to lead music at a variety of conferences in Canada and the US, including APCE, Montreat Youth Conference, ARW, Peacemaking, Big Tent, and Canada Youth. Hugh serves as the minister at Guildwood Community Presbyterian Church in Toronto. Important activities in Hugh's life include long distance running, flying small airplanes and playing with his band, Lost Pilgrims.
