California Teachers: Register Today for a Free Day of Learning Led by Teachers, For Teachers

What does personalized learning look like in the classroom? Learn how you can incorporate choice and voice into your classroom at the fourth annual Better Together: California Teachers Summit. Registration is now open to California pre-K-12 teachers, teacher candidates, school administrators and other educators.

The theme for this year's summit is "It's Personal: Meeting the Needs of Every Student." On July 27, new and seasoned California teachers will come together to experience personalized learning and learn tailored strategies they can use in the classroom. In addition to exploring teacher-selected topics presented by teacher leaders, participants will also have the opportunity to share ideas and build lasting connections with a professional network of educators.
