Request from Rabbi Rothman

While I was able to meet with many of you whom requested a private meeting about finding the Golden Path within us, with the passing of my father and some illnesses I went through, I was unable to meet with some of you whom requested to meet.

At this time, I want to invite those whom contacted me and any others wishing a private meeting to kindly contact me, and we will meet in the immediate future.

Please feel free to call me at 416-876-0691 or email at ravavi@rogers.com

I am sorry for the inevitable delay and look forward to meeting with you.

Rabbi Avram Rothman

Silent Auction Items needed for our Annual Tribute Dinner

The Silent Auction is always a fun, exciting and worthwhile part of our annual tribute dinner.

The Dinner Committee is searching for special, high-end items to be auctioned at the dinner. If you have something special you would like to donate to the auction, please write or call Rabbi Rothman at 416.876.0691

PROFILE FOR MOTHER'S DAY

This week in celebration of Mother's Day, we have a special edition of PROFILES featuring our Mom's and impact they have had on our lives.

TCS: I am feeling pretty good about coming up with idea.

TCS Editor: Give me a break. You are just trying to get on your Mom's good side so she will let you borrow her car.

TCS: That's not true. I have my own car.

TCS Editor: That pile of rusted metal with wheels? Calling that a car, is like calling Abbas a peacemaker.

TCS: Let's get back on track.

TCS Editor: There is a saying that the apple does not fall far from the tree. In addition, there are many great apples in TCS.

TCS: Why are you talking about fruit?

TCS Editor: Is your brain made of kasha? What I am trying to say is that the great midot and tremendous accomplishments of our members are owed in great part to the Mother's that raised our members.

TCS: Oh, I get it.

TCS Editor: So what did you have in mind?

TCS: I thought we would go directly to our members and ask them to put in their own words why they think their Mother's are special.

TCS Editor: Actually, that is a pretty darn good idea.

TCS: First, I think we should acknowledge that while the Day can be a wonderful opportunity to show gratitude to our Mom's that should not replace the more important need to each and every day appreciate what our Mom's have done for us and for those of us lucky enough continue to do for us.

TCS Editor: I think it is also important to recognize that it can be a very hard day for many. For those whose Mothers have passed away, the day can hit particularly hard. Moreover, there are lots of Mom's who are not blessed with unlimited nachas. Look no further than our Matriarchs who no doubt had some bitter "Mother's Days" whether it was Jacob quarreling with Esau, Yocheved having to give up Moshe or Hannah who fulfilled her promise to give up her son.

TCS: So let's get started.

Dalya Rothman: A mom amongst mothers! Thank you for being our matriarch, our rebbetzin, our mother, our friend and our Omi!!! Love all the Rothman's, big and little!!

Vierka Fink: Everybody's mother is special but my mother aka Mama Karlin is special because she will do whatever it takes to make you happy. From coming to my house to cook Irving's favorite food to making sure that all her children, grandchildren, great grandchildren and friends have everything they need. My mother is selfless, giving and caring. Mama Karlin just makes life that much easier for everyone.

Laura Adler: My mom and I had date night once a month before I moved out and they moved to Spain. We would go to dinner and then a movie and laugh and talk. I had her undivided attention and shared with her all my secrets. We are still so close though she lives 6,000 miles away.

Date night or coffee date is something I'm trying to do with each of my kids as I think it's so important for each to have their special time. I don't always get to do it and this year was so very hard for me. But my kids so look forward to it that at the end of it I'm not sure who enjoyed it more! Happy mothers day Ima! Te quiero!

Doris Morris: My mom is the one who no matter how I feel, happy, sad, excited, frustrated, calm or angry, always listen to me and find the right words to make me feel better! Je t'aime ma chère petite Maman.

Shoshana Beker: Even though everyone says this, I truly believe my Mom is the best Mom ever.

Taiji Beker: I love you Mommy even if I don't act like I do.

Brandon/Jonah Sherman: We would like to recognize how intelligent our mother Neilia Sherman is and how she helps us with day to day tasks.

Sharon Orgel: My mom gives me a kiss when I am sad. She smiles with me when I am glad. She listens to me when I need an ear. She has been there for me year after year. I love you, Mom (Anne Singal).

Newton Hoffer: MaMa, what can I say but, "Are you able to pick up the kids from school today? Aw, I kibbitz – Roslyn (Bubbie Hoffer) is all things to our family – Thank you for everything. Love You.

Hadassah Hoffer: My mom Ruth was the most understanding person I have ever known. Before it was popular to take parenting classes, she was the first one to sign up when my grade school offered them. She saw the world for what it was a place to take care of- by raising 2 children who would contribute to it, not take from it. When I converted to Judaism she came to the mikvah with me, I introduced her to Rav Lowy of the Beit Din and he said to her, "It is an honour to meet you." For those of you who were lucky enough to meet her, you know it was true. Miss you Mom!

TCS: Are you crying?

TCS Editor: No, no, just cutting onions. Carry on.

Ezra Ridgley: My mother Margret has been such a sweet mother that when I looked up sweet in the dictionary, I saw her picture. Then I looked up honey and I saw her picture again. Thanks Mom for being so sweet.

Douglas Ross: My Mum Jannis Cohen is the best fried fish maker I know and she taught me everything I know re cooking Fish.

TCS Editor: "fish making" is code in New Zealand for fixing my booboos with a band-aid, kiss and a tissue to wipe the tears away. New Zealand men are notoriously tough and would never directly admit to needing this kind of help.

Brian Waterman: My mother Brenda Starr Sherman, sadly died at the age of 60 in 1999. She taught me to stand up for myself and to fight for the rights of others.

Stephen Beker: My mom, Simmie is special because she really values family above all else. I am proud that despite her turning 90 in October, she still drives, lives by herself, works, cooks and has a social life that I envy. Moreover, she is so sensitive to each child that she pretends she likes my siblings as much as she likes me.

Ron Beker: My mom, Simmie Beker has always been there for us. She has been our biggest supporter and would do anything for us. She even cares for my adopted brother as much as my sister and I.

Stephen Beker: Wait, what?

Perry Gall: I can only recall my mom being pleasant to everyone. When she found someone wasn't pleasant to her, she always reminded us that we aren't aware of the troubles/challenges that someone else might be facing or may have faced, so not to hold their behaviour in a moment in time against them. Advice we should all hold by.

Shelley Herman: My Mom, Yocheved bas Yitzchok Meyer, aleyha haShalom, was a resilient woman who retrained and went back to work at the age of 50. She taught us how to bounce back, be self-sufficient, and to face each day as a brand new day with new opportunities. I miss her so much, and will forever cherish my memories of her, and the lessons that she taught us.

Shelley Herman: My mother-in-law, Hadassah bas Yisroel, Aleha haShalom, was a holocaust survivor with an amazing story of survival. It was in her home where I had the first real exposure to observing Shabbos. I loved going to her house, and enjoyed all of the delicious foods that she made. She doted on her children, addressing their every need. We miss her dearly, but her loving imprint is forever etched in our memories.

Paskovaty Family: Ok so what's makes our mom so special, well nothing in particular, just a usual stuff: cooking, feeding, driving us around, doing homework, taking us camping, biking, rollerblading even if one of us ended up with a broken hand, waking up to comfort us in the middle of the night if we have a bad dream. She is the typical Yiddish mom who sacrifices her life, career and well-being for us.

Stephen Beker: My mother-in-law is truly an angel. Despite losing her Mom at a very early age and enduring much hardship, she has always served others and never sought recognition or thanks. When I look at my beautiful wife and wonder if I am just biased about how great she is, I just have to look at her Mom and know that her wonderful qualities come from her parents.

Ilana Hoffer: My Mom, Janet Sherman, is always an inspiration. My Mom worked & had her own Public Relations company in the 70's – long before it was fashionable for women to work.

The Froom Kids: Mommy - you don't just juggle thousands of balls, You smile and make sure that no one falls.
You take care of each of our many needs, You role model how to do good deeds.

Lee-Anne Wachtel: Dear Emaleh I love you and thank you for everything over the last 40 years. I couldn't have made it this far without you. I also want to remember my bubbies. Esther Alspector and Gizella Wachtel. I love and miss you both very much.

Michael Ironi: With love and great admiration, a special recognition of the wonderful way you look after the boys and me.

TCS Editor: What exactly did you have in mind featuring this picture?

TCS: I just searched Momma on the internet and grabbed the first picture I could find.

TCS Editor: That is Ma Barker.

TCS: You know her?

TCS Editor: Ikh Geb Ayof.

TCS: Let's leave our readers with something touching that Hadassah Hoffer sent.

Once upon a time there was a child ready to be born. The child asked God, "They tell me you are sending me to earth tomorrow but how am I going to live there being so small and helpless?"

God replied, "Among the many angels I have chosen one for you. She will be waiting for you and will take care of you."

Said child, "But tell me here in Heaven I don't do anything else but sing and smile. That's what I need to be happy!" God replied, "Your angel will sing for you every day. And you will feel your angel's love and be happy."

And, said the child, "How am I going to be able to understand when people talk to me, if I don't know the language that men talk?" "That's easy", God said, "Your angel will tell you the most beautiful and sweet words you will ever hear, and with much patience and care, your angel will teach you how to speak. "The child looked up at God saying, "And what am I going to do when I want to talk to you?" God smiled at the child saying, "Your angel will teach you how to pray."

The child said, "I've heard on earth there are bad men. Who will protect me?" God replied, "Your angel will defend you, even if it means risking life!" The child looked sad, saying, "But I will always be sad because I will not see you anymore." God replied, "Your angel will always talk to you about me and will teach you the way to come back to me, even though I will always be next to you."

At that moment there was much peace in Heaven, but voices from earth could already be heard.

The child in a hurry, asked softly, "Oh God, if I am about to leave now please tell me my angel's name!"

God replied, "Your angel's name is of no importance... you will simply call her MOTHER"
