NOBLE's 43rd Annual Training Conference
Request For Presentation Proposals

- Conference Location: Hyatt Regency New Orleans
601 Loyola Avenue, New Orleans, LA 70113
- Conference Dates: August 9th – August 14th, 2019
- Conference Theme: “Justice: Exploring Principles in Innovation For A More Equitable Future”

Since 1976, The National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) has served as the conscience of law enforcement by being committed to “justice by action.” NOBLE represents over 3,000 members internationally, who are primarily African-American chief executive officers of law enforcement agencies at federal, state, county and municipal levels, other law enforcement administrators, and criminal justice practitioners. For more information, visit <http://www.noblenational.org>.

Individuals and organizations are invited to submit presentation proposals to conduct a law enforcement related workshop, seminar, or panel discussion at NOBLE's 43rd Annual Training Conference and Exhibition in New Orleans, LA. All proposals and supporting documentation must be submitted to the Education and Training Committee by 5 pm on November 30, 2018 – conferences@noblenatl.org.

Presentation Themes/Topics for the 2019 Conference are:

- Youth Engagement
- Technology and Smart Policing in Law Enforcement
- Procedural and Restorative Justice
- Implicit Bias, Racial Equity & Social Justice In Law Enforcement
- De-escalation and Crisis Intervention
- Working with the Mentally Ill
- Leadership and Professional Development
- Officer Wellness
- Seminars for the Federal Sector
- Racial and Gender Equity in Hiring and Promotions in Law Enforcement

A complete proposal must include:

1. Presentation Proposal Form
2. Bios, photos and contact information of all presenters

The Presentation Proposal Form must be completed in its entirety and include supporting documentation to be considered for space on the conference schedule. Incomplete proposals will not be considered. NOBLE's receipt of the proposal form does not guarantee acceptance of the proposed presentation. The Education and Training Committee will review all proposals and notify the individual and/or organization once the proposals are approved and accepted for the conference. Individuals (or organizations) who submit proposals that have been accepted will receive a notice of approval and will be contacted by a member of the Education and Training Committee or the Executive Director – notice of accepted/rejected proposals will be received by December 30, 2018.

NOBLE does not finance any travel, lodging, or expenses for any presenters. All travel and hotel expenses are the responsibility of the individual presenter(s).

NOBLE's presentation format: All rooms will accommodate between 50 and 150 attendees and will be classroom-style with a head-table for the presenters. Each room will be equipped with one podium microphone, one microphone for questions and answers and two table microphones. (Lapel microphones are not supplied) Additionally, there will be one screen, and one LCD projector with sound. Presenters must supply their own laptop and connection cords to be used for the presentation. You will be required to connect your laptop to the projector for the presentation.

If hand-outs are used for the presentation, presenters must bring sufficient copies to the conference, there will be very limited onsite copying. Presenters may ship copies of handouts to the conference or use personal resources to access local printing stores. All presentation time periods are one hour and forty-five minutes in length. The Education and Training Committee will determine the date and time of all presentations. Some seminars/panels may be presented more than once during the conference. Once the proposal has been approved, the individual submitting the workshop will be contacted by a member of the Education and Training Committee and assigned a coordinator. Your coordinator will inform you of the date, time and location of your presentation.

Proposals that do not have contact information or are incomplete will not be considered.
