Call out for Artefacts and Art

Celebrating disability rights and history

Due Monday, May 10th, 2017

The Disability Action Hall and community partners invite you to be part of our 19th annual Speak Out. We invite you to submit your artwork and/or historical artifacts for “Humanity and Me”, our celebration of disability pride, culture and human rights.

If your work is selected, it will be in a pop up gallery and/or part of our celebration on Friday, June 2nd, 2017 held at the historical Lougheed House.

All mediums and art forms are welcomed.

Size limitations:

Lougheed House Gallery cannot accept sculpture, unless it is small enough to be displayed in the available exhibit cases (2 cases with 9 inch high glass-tops and 4 cases with 28 inch glass-tops, each case display deck measures 36 X 20 inches).

The gallery measures approximately 930 square feet of floor space and 77 linear feet of wall space. Ceiling height is 7 feet 8 inches (7 feet below lighting track). There is a Gallery System track for hanging, with integrated lighting LED 12v MR-16 bulbs and security hooks.

Please submit your proposal in hard copy in standard 8.5 X 11 format (images may be supplied on CD). If you wish to have your submission returned please include a self addressed stamped envelope with sufficient postage paid.

Please note that only those submissions under consideration will be contacted.

Deadline Monday, May 10th, 2017
