CALL FOR ENTRIES

The IIDA Mid America Chapter is pleased to announce our Mid America Design Awards ceremony on Friday, April 21st, 2017. The Mid America Design Awards (MADA) is a biennial event that recognizes Interior Design work within the Kansas City and Wichita City Centers. Design firms throughout the Chapter will submit projects from numerous market sectors and compete for outstanding recognition among their peers. Those selected as award winners will be honored for their exceptional quality of work in the interior design profession. Project judging will be based upon innovation, functionality, and implementation of overall design intent and brand. A panel of distinguished judges will be selected to perform the judging review for all entries*.

PROJECT CATEGORIES INCLUDE:

- Civic & Government
- Corporate Small (0-10,000 sf.)
- Corporate Medium (10,000-50,000 sf.)
- Corporate Large (50,000 sf. and above)
- Education (K-12)
- Higher Education / Research
- Healthcare & Assisted Living
- Hospitality
- Renovation & Restoration
- Residential
- Retail
- Sports & Recreation

 First and second place awards will be given at the judge's discretion.*

If no award will be given to a given category, entrants will be notified in advance.

 Best of City Center and Best of Show awards will be given at judge's discretion.*

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS:

All projects submitted must have been completed after JANUARY 1, 2015. There are no limits on the number of projects a firm may submit. A single facility can only be entered in one category.
