

Michel is a Funds Specialist on the Equity Solutions desk at J.P. Morgan, responsible for managed strategies for clients in Latin America and the US Central region. Prior to joining the Private Bank in 2014, Michel spent ten years as an equity derivatives specialist providing solutions for institutional investors including insurance companies, pension funds, asset managers, and endowments. He worked on the institutional sales desk at Credit Suisse for 6 years, then joined RBS to launch the US derivatives flow business. Michel started his career as a corporate attorney at Debevoise & Plimpton, where he represented financial sponsors and multilateral banks in structuring financing transactions in Latin America.

Michel holds an M.B.A. from Columbia Business School and a J.D. from New York University School of Law. He received his bachelor's degree at Brown University. He is a native Spanish speaker and is conversational in Italian, and enjoys baseball, snowboarding and skiing.