Perspectives on the Conflict in Korea

Wednesday, January 10, 7:30–9:30 PM, Sanctuary

- Film screening
- Panel discussion
- Question & Answer

Sunnyvale Presbyterian Church (SVPC) has partnered with the Korea Policy Institute (an independent research and educational group dedicated to providing timely analysis of U.S. policy toward Korea) to host an evening of education and conversation about the history and present circumstances that help define the reality of conflict on the Korean peninsula. The members of the SVPC community are committed to working for peace and reconciliation in the world, as an expression of our Christian faithfulness. Part of working for peace is to understand and address underlying concerns that lead to conflict. The Korea Policy Institute (KPI) is also dedicated to achieving peace and reconciliation in Korea, and believes that ignorance or lack of access to good information often prevent U.S. policymakers and the public from doing the best they can to advocate for peace.

SVPC and KPI are joining together to invite people from all parts of the South Bay community to come together for an evening of hearing stories about the impact of the Korean conflict, and to hear the perspectives of individuals who are active in working for peace in Korea. We will be viewing the powerful documentary Memory of Forgotten War. We will be hearing from KPI leaders Dr. Christine Hong and Mr. Paul Liem, and from Presbyterian Mission Co-Workers Rev. Hyeyoung Lee and Rev. Kurt Esslinger, as they together lead us in a panel discussion. There will also be an opportunity for you to ask questions of our experts.

The View From Here

by Rev. Hardy H. Kim

Happy New Year!

It was wonderful to celebrate the beginning of the church year with you all—to wait and hope with you during Advent, and then to experience the joy of Christmas. As we enter into this new calendar year, I am eager to continue the journey and to follow as Christ’s light leads us all to greater wholeness and justice.

As we move through these final days of Christmas and approach the feasts of Epiphany (January 7), I hope that you are finding time and rest from all the holiday business, so that you can consider what receiving Christ’s birth into this chapter of your life might mean. My own reflections have been filled with questions about what our Christmas encounter with God’s humanity in Jesus might mean for our relationships with the spirit of God we encounter in one another. How can we keep and honor the joy of divine meeting that we experience at Christmastime? What are the paths that will lead us to see God in a human face, the way the magi greeted Jesus so long ago?

I hope that you will join us for a conversation on January 10, as we seek to learn from stories and studies that emerge from histories of conflict in Korea (details in the cover article). There will be a wonderful documentary film and then the chance to learn from experts, including

PC(USA) mission co-workers Kurt Esslinger and Hyeyoung Lee. I believe these conversations really matter because, in trying to make peace, we affirm the humanity of those we might otherwise condemn as enemies and we look for the face of Christ in them. 🌱

Your friend on this Christmas path,

Rooted in Christ...

Sunnyvale Presbyterian offers everyone an opportunity to connect with the church community.

Life in Community: Building Healthy Relationships

January 7–February 4, 11:30 AM–12:30 PM,
Soulé Hall

Taught by Val Weirauch

This five-week journey will explore what it is to be a Christian in community. As we live out our daily lives interacting with individuals we meet just “in passing” to those we consider close companions and all the others in between, how is it that our faith influences our interactions? Since we are created to be in community, how do we do that well? Through lecture and group discussions this class will allow us to explore and experience some practical ways we can turn our faith into actions that impact our relationships and help us each become more of who God created us to be.

👉 Register for this class (and sign up for child care) on Signup Genius—bit.ly/LifeInComm

Reaching Out In Love.

Christ commands us to love one another as He loves us. Here's how.

Financial Update through November

$1,180K	Income
-$1,215K	Expenses
$	-35K Deficit

Both contributions and expenses continue to be right in line with the budget resulting in a $35K deficit. Keeping your giving current and making additional gifts enable our church to be financially healthy. We continue to be grateful for your stewardship to this church community. Thank you!

OUR GIFTS

Giving in 2018

We thank those who are generously giving in 2017 and for those who have already made a 2018 commitment. So far during this stewardship campaign, the commitments for 2018 are coming in at the same rate as last year—both in dollars and in numbers. However in order to meet next year's budget which includes a new associate pastor at the end of the year, an expanded marketing effort, and reserves for both facility upkeep and solar investment, we need to increase our budget by $300K which is equal to 15% of our budget.

We do need to hear from ALL of you. Letting us know your plan of giving allows us to plan well for next year's ministry. You can find a commitment card in the church office or online. Thank you.

A Note from The Music School Director

Chantelle Urbina

I am thrilled to have the opportunity to serve as Director of The Music School. I have been invested in The Music School for over 25 years, and am blessed to have been able to work so closely with founder Doris Harry for such a long time. My philosophy as a music educator is deeply influenced and enriched by what I have learned from Doris, and I am committed to continuing her legacy at The Music School.

Music has been a major part of my life since I was a child. I specialized in Music Education, Vocal Concentration at University of the Pacific Conservatory of Music. It is there I met my husband Anthony who is also a musician and teacher. Teaching children and working with talented musicians is my passion, and I have been fortunate to have been able to work with students of all age groups. In addition to teaching at The Music School, I have worked extensively with Jill Denny and the Mountain View High School choirs, and I currently serve as Business Manager for the Santa Clara Chorale.

I intend to carry on the quality programs and traditions we have at The Music School, and I look forward to trying new things, including a variety of specialized workshops for both kids and adults. Keep your eye on our website to see what we'll be offering in the coming year. I am committed to outreach and I think there is no better way to bring people in than with music.

Many, many thanks to The Music School faculty and families, PELC staff, and Sunnyvale Presbyterian Church staff and administration for such wonderful support in this transition. What an amazing community we have!

Parents—Ready for a Date Night?

Parent's Night Out (PNO) is a Christian cooperative child care program at Sunnyvale Presbyterian Church. PNO is administered and staffed by participating couples, and overseen by the Director of Family Ministries. The program runs on a 16-week trimester basis. Families are expected to commit to the entire trimester. PNO currently meets Saturdays from 5:30–8:30 PM.

During the three-hour program, children enjoy age-appropriate activities, a snack, and a movie. Two couples provide supervision each week. Couples work on a rotating, regularly scheduled basis. When it is not your turn to supervise children, you are free to go out and spend time together as a couple. Families of all types and sizes are welcome. Children at least 6 months old are welcome to participate.

Currently we have an opening for our next trimester which begins in March. If you would like more information about PNO and/or would like to be added to our waiting list, please contact Michelle Schmidt at dancingschmidt@gmail.com or Lydia Coolidge at lydiacoolidge@gmail.com.

Thank You

Dear Sunnyvale Church Members and Staff,

My family and I were comforted and drew strength from the prayers that surrounded us through my father's extended illness and death. Thank you for your kindness and love. My father treasured the beautiful lap robe lovingly given by the church. My mother wears her prayer shawl daily and feels the peace that was prayed into every stitch. We are so appreciative of our church family.

With a grateful heart,
Bethann Merriam
