Focus on Mission

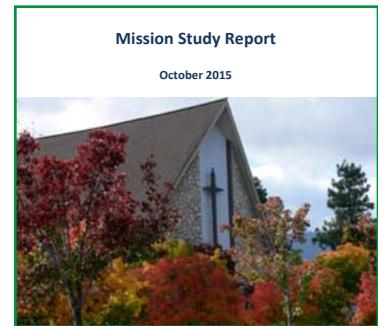

By Gary Ruschke, Lead Elder Mission & Service Ministry

The Mission & Service ministry team has been at work refining our congregation's focus. We were guided by the 2015 Mission Study Report that was done as the launch of the search for a new Head of Staff that noted "a call to help catalyze individuals to engage more fully in the people and issues of our community."

Energized by this report and strengthened by the leadership of Pastor Karin, the Mission & Service ministry team set out on a journey to discern how to address the report findings and energize every member of our congregation to be active in the service of others and through service to be a witness to the love of God through Jesus Christ in the world.

To do that effectively, we decided we needed increased focus. We currently support many people, organizations, and causes, all of whom are doing excellent work in the name of Jesus Christ; but the result is that we are scattered, less effective than we might be, and lacking a clear identity as a church with regards to mission.

So, how to obtain focus? Our conclusion was that the Holy Spirit is leading us as a congregation to protect, serve, empower, and advocate for the most vulnerable members of our community and beyond. So whom shall we protect, serve, empower, and advocate for? The hungry, the homeless, the refugee, and the immigrant.

SVPC has a deep tradition of battling food insecurity in our community and beyond. We have a history of providing shelter and comfort for the homeless. Our refugee ministry and our emerging focus on immigrants align with the Bible's teaching on welcoming the stranger. These groups—the hungry, the homeless, the refugee and the immigrant—form the basis for our renewed mission focus.

In the coming weeks and months, you will be hearing about opportunities to protect, serve, empower, and advocate for these vulnerable members of our community and beyond. In particular, we are forming leadership teams for each area to more effectively engage with each group in our community.

Our journey continues. We are excited to see how the spirit might move you to join us.

The View From Here

by Rev. Debbie Whaley

LENT

Dear Friends,

We are half-way through Lent and we are now enjoying the signs of spring. The blossoms are out, daffodils are on display, and Easter is just around the corner. The new life promised in the resurrection of our Lord is proclaimed in creation. Now is our turn to think about how we tell that story of hope to our neighbors, families, and co-workers.

SVPC is overflowing with new life. Paul Scholtz, our new youth director, is creating more intentional discipleship programs for our young people to grow in their faith. Our children are being loved well. Our new emphasis on the integration of youth and children

"Now is our turn to think about how we tell that story of hope to our neighbors, families, and coworkers."

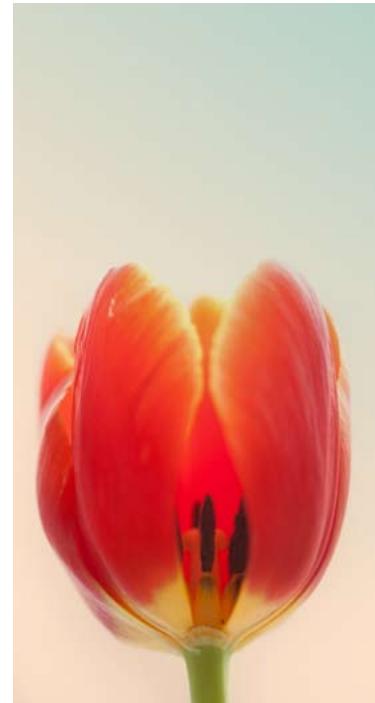

under the banner of families is bringing a new energy to families as a primary place of discipleship. Our mission department is on fire and dozens and dozens of people are being galvanized for deeper outreach to refugees, immigrants, the homeless, and those who struggle with food scarcity. Our welcome and hospitality ministry is helping us welcome new folks into our church.

Creation is proclaiming new life. Our church is embodying renewal. Our Lord is out of the tomb and at work in all of us. All this comes into full focus at Easter.

So invite your family and friends to journey with us as we celebrate God's gift of new life in Christ! You will not want to miss a moment of Holy Week so plan to join us for Palm Sunday, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and, of course for Easter Sunday!

Blessings,

Rooted in Christ...

Sunnyvale Presbyterian offers everyone an opportunity to connect with the church community.

Hands Around the Mosque

A Small Step in Bridge Building
by Lynn Peterson

On March 19, my husband Jim and I participated in a show of solidarity with Muslims at an interfaith and intercommunity gathering at the Muslim Community Association (MCA) in Santa Clara, co-hosted by MCA and the American Muslim Voice Foundation.

Hundreds of people attended, forming a human circle around the outside of the building. Back indoors, we enjoyed refreshments and took part in the 5 PM prayer service.

Following the service, more than 20 speakers, including the Rev. Joey Lee, our Executive Presbyter, spoke to show friendship with and support for our Muslim neighbors. This uplifting event was, for us, a small step in bridge building.

One Great Hour of Sharing Offering

Palm Sunday, April 9

During Lent, Christians pay close attention to spiritual disciplines that deepen our understanding of what God is doing in our lives and in the world. As a church, one discipline we practice is to support the least of these through One Great Hour of Sharing. Jesus' ministry was among those who were most vulnerable. He preached good news to the poor and release to the captives. A gift to One Great Hour of Sharing enables the church to share God's love with our neighbors-in-need around the world by providing relief to those affected by natural disasters, providing food to the hungry, and helping to empower the poor and oppressed. This year the One Great Hour of Sharing Offering will be collected on Palm Sunday, April 9.
