

Dear Friends,

Please join us in welcoming MARK EVES to SHILO FARM
on Sunday, May 20th at 3:00pm
for WOOD FIRED PIZZA, APPETIZERS & BEER
and to learn more about MARK EVES
and his campaign for GOVERNOR.

In the past I have always been quite politically involved and made it a point to not only stay informed, but to be an active participant in electoral campaigns, as well as human rights & environmental issues. Yet lately I have become discouraged and downright dismayed by the current political climate. And rather than these emotions igniting my inner fire, I have found myself withdrawing from political activism and focusing more on building a sound local community through the creation of Shilo Farm with Jonas. It is purposeful and meaningful work, yet, I knew I could be doing more on a broader political level as well. It was about the time that I was having these musings, when the opportunity arose to meet Mark Eves and learn more about his campaign to become Maine's next governor.

Here's the thing....with so many candidates in the running, this primary is essential to help Mark secure a spot in the race to reclaim Maine as the socially conscious, compassion state that we are. I first met Mark at Susan and Derek Ahl's homestead in South Berwick. They too are mobilizing on a local level to bring community together in a creative and nurturing way through the creation of the Mainspring Center. It was here that my hope for the future of politics was restored. Why? Because Mark is the kind of person that leads with his heart and his head. As a trained family therapist for community health organizations, he has been on the front lines learning that you don't give up on folks when they are struggling... You listen. You are present. And you work together to make real and meaningful change.

So, please consider joining us on Sunday to inform yourself on the current issue and learn more about Mark. Below are some bulleted highlights of who Mark is on a personal and professional standpoint and some of the major issues he is focusing on.

PROFESSIONAL: Mark served eight years in the Maine House of Representatives, including two terms as Speaker of the House. He has spent most of his time working to bring together a state that can feel awfully divided. It was under Mark's leadership that the legislature

- Passed a bipartisan middle-class tax cut
- Boosted property tax relief for all Maine families
- Strengthened investments in Maine's children, seniors and workers.

ISSUES: As an Occupational Therapist, I have been in the trenches with our dysfunctional healthcare system and have witnessed Seniors not getting the support that they need when they are at their most vulnerable. Mark has a history of working with this underserved population & is working towards ending housing waitlists by providing affordable senior housing, lowering property taxes and providing greater support for family members to be supported financially through the role of caretaker. Other issues that he is working on:

- Improving Education: Support Students, Parents & Teachers
- Putting a stop to Gun Violence
- Addressing Jobs & the Economy
- Protecting the Environment
- Ending the Drug Epidemic

PERSONAL: Mark lives in North Berwick with his wife Laura, their three young children, four goats, two pigs and a coop full of chickens.

There is so much more to say, but I fear this letter is already quite long winded. So, please consider joining us next Sunday to find out for yourself if Mark has your vote ... and to enjoy some wood fired pizza and local brew. We hope all who attend will be as impressed as we are by Mark and his vision for our state, and will consider contributing $20 $50, $100, or whatever you can. Please rsvp at shilofarm88@gmail.com or on our Facebook Page, so we know how much food to have on hand.

Looking forward to seeing you!

In Community,
Amylyn and Jonas Zev Amberger
