MacSween Haggis

With 60 years of history, MacSween is passionate about making a variety of quality haggises using the best ingredients and family recipes. Haggises are otherwise known as Scotland's national dish and are savoury puddings combining meat with oatmeal, onions, salt and spices. Besides the traditional lamb haggis, MacSween also produces a vegetarian version that combines vegetables, mushrooms, pulses, oats, onions and seeds. MacSween's haggis was discovered on Ernst Huber's family trip to Scotland and Huber's Butchery suggests that you could make it a part of the turkey stuffing for the upcoming festive season! DD
