

HUBER'S BUTCHERY

Known for its wide range of meats – poultry, veal, beef, hams and more – and generous selection of gourmet cheeses, dried goods and oils, this family-run shop is a familiar favourite for meat lovers. This Christmas, Huber's Butchery is offering a selection of bone-in, semi-bone or boneless hams, homemade turkey stuffings and chipolatas, as well as lamb or vegetarian haggis ($16.30) from Scottish brand Macsween. Popular picks include the premium skin-off, cooked honey-baked ham ($47 per kg) and cooked chicken chipolata ($22 per kg). For something a little special, don't miss the butchery's own chipolatas – they come in unusual festive flavours like gingerbread-flavoured pork ($29 per kg), and venison, bacon and red wine ($31 per kg). You can buy in the knowledge that more than 90 percent of Huber's meats and meat products are growth hormone-free; the sausages are also made with natural casings and without any fillers. Plus, you can get some handy tips and even recipes from the expert butchers!

To order: Order online at hubers.com.sg. Both delivery and pick-up options are available. All Christmas orders must be placed before 8pm on 15 December.

HEIMATSTERNE

From 4 to 25 December, you can look forward to a wide array of festive sweets and desserts from German brand HeimatSterne, available at Takashimaya's Christmas Food Bazaar at Level B2. Expect a neat selection of European sweets and desserts like traditional German Nueremberger Lebkuchen and gingerbreads in decorative tins, as well as delicious cakes such as raspberry cream slices and Black Forest gâteau, which make for an easy addition to your dessert table. If you're hosting a younger crowd, the selection of chocolate Santa Clauses, decadent donuts and muffins will sure please anyone with a sweet tooth.

Tight on time? HeimatSterne's thin-crust, stone-oven pizzas are a fab option for a fuss-free festive feast. Topped with European tomato chunks, sundried tomato, mozzarella and Edam cheese, plus Italian oregano and basil, the Margherita is a popular choice for any gathering. The best part? Baking time is just 15 minutes!

If you're looking for a gift to bring to a party, check out the gift hampers (priced from $60), which feature ice cream, hand-harvested wines, truffle pralines and more.

To buy: Visit Takashimaya's Christmas Food Bazaar, shop online at hs.direct or email contact@faust.asia.
