Dear Friend,

Our Metrocrest Mayors' Prayer Breakfast is celebrating its 26th year on May 4, our National Day of Prayer. This year's theme is "For Your GREAT Name's Sake, Hear us . . . Forgive Us . . . Heal Us!" inspired by the scripture, Daniel 9:19: "O Lord, listen! O Lord, forgive! O Lord, hear and act! For your sake, O my God . . ." The goal of our Metrocrest Mayors' Prayer Breakfast on the National Day of Prayer is to reflect the faith and unity of our communities.

As we look back over a quarter of a century, our hearts overflow with gratitude for our participating churches, businesses, organizations, and mayors/cities (Addison, Carrollton, Coppell, and Farmers Branch).

Tim Brown, this year's keynote speaker, is both an NFL and College Hall of Famer. He played for Notre Dame, where he won the Heisman Trophy and went on to become an NFL wide receiver with the Oakland Raiders. His success with that team and the franchise records he set with the organization earned him the nickname, Mr. Raider!

Brown is also the author of a book, The Making Of A Man, and is an entrepreneur whose accomplishments on and off the field of play have earned him a platform as a popular motivational speaker. Most of his fans know that Tim is a Christian and that God is at the center of his decisions. "God gives you a talent for a reason, to live for Him and certainly to do it on the middle of a football field."

Tim takes being a role model very seriously, and believes that giving back to the community is an important responsibility. He continues to support hundreds of schools, hospitals, churches, and organizations such as the DFW Fellowship of Christian Athletes, where he serves as a spokesperson for their One Way 2 Play - Drug Free program.

Don't miss this opportunity to meet and hear Tim Brown, a real hero of our DFW community.
