

PESACH ON WEST ESPLANADE

Practice, Politics and Palate

A three-part learning series with our local Rabbis

March 7, 2018

7:30pm at Shir Chadash

With Rabbi Deborah Silver

Who Knows One? How many Haggadot are there? We will explore how the Maggid, the 'telling' part of the Haggadah, reflects multiple narratives and why that might be, followed by some ideas to liven up the way we tell the story at our own Sedarim this year!

---

March 14, 2018

7:30pm at Congregation Gates of Prayer

With Rabbi Bob Loewy

"Avadim Hayinu- We were slaves in Egypt." How does this remembrance from long ago, along with other Pesach texts, impact how we respond to oppression and injustice in our time?

March 21, 2018

7:30pm at Congregation Beth Israel

With Rabbi Gabe Greenberg

Soft Matzah - It's a Pesach Miracle! Most Jews only know matzah as the hard, thin, cracker-like bread that stores for years and is a slog to consume. Join us as we will learn about soft matzah, which is closer to what our ancestors made and is making a comeback today as well...
