

Lucy Hampton Bostick Award Nominations Sought

Each year, the Richland Library Friends and Foundation presents the Lucy Hampton Bostick Award to either a South Carolinian author, someone who has written a significant literary work on South Carolina or someone in the Midlands who has significantly advanced the interest in books or libraries.

The award, which includes a medal and a cash honorarium, will be presented at the Friends and Foundation Annual Celebration in the fall. Nominations must be postmarked by midnight on May 31, 2018.

Remembering Lucy Hampton Bostick

Presented since 1978, this award honors the memory of Lucy Hampton Bostick, long time head librarian in Richland County, who is credited with fostering interest in Southern literature and history, improving cultural life in Columbia and promoting library appreciation throughout the state. Bostick was the director of the Richland County Public Library from 1928-1968. During her tenure, the library saw tremendous growth and development. She inaugurated a book-mobile service that extended library privileges to every community in the county and introduced the circulation of classical music recordings. Her encouragement of reading and interest in books extended throughout the state. She served as president of the South Carolina Librarians and was responsible for statewide legislation to make literature available free to citizens of South Carolina.
