

Voted Washington DC's Best Dance Company
in the 2015 CityPaper Reader's Poll

Christopher K. Morgan & Artists

A Contemporary Dance Company

Internships

Christopher K. Morgan & Artists seeks aspiring arts administration, marketing, production management and/or dance students looking for a comprehensive view of running a small dance company for their internship program. Entering its sixth season, CKM&A is a dance company with a national profile, whose work stems from a belief in the urgency of live performance in an increasingly isolating, commercial and digital world. The company is in the midst of an eight-city tour of Morgan's evening length solo Pohaku, while also developing future projects.

Requirements

- Organized, detail-oriented, self-motivated individuals.
- 8 -10 hours per week available to commit to the company.
- Interns usually have one weekly in office meeting & remote work.
- A computer or access to a computer is necessary for remote work.
- Knowledge of Word and Excel.
- Schedule fluctuates during CKM&A productions and events.

Description

Interns will work directly with the Artistic Director and Assistant Director. Opportunities for free dance classes (when the company is in session), college credit and a stipend are provided. Interns gain experience in various aspects of the organization, including:

- Production assistance
- Marketing
- Tour support
- Data collection and archiving
- Fundraising projects and events planning

Email cover letter and resume to christopherkaui@gmail.com
Internship period is approximately September 12, 2016 - January 15, 2017.
Interviews will take place the week of September 7.

