Presented by WEA Member Benefits: 5:30-7:00 pm

Basics of Budgeting and Saving

A written budget gives you control over your finances. It empowers you to set and reach financial goals, helps you manage day-to-day finances and prepare for the unexpected. A budget also gives you permission to spend and allows you to set the course for your financial future.

You will learn:

- The benefits of a written budget.
- How to create a working budget.
- To evaluate your income and read your pay stub.
- How to categorize and reduce your expenses.
- Tips for managing your debt.
- Why saving for your future is necessary and possible even now.

Presented by WEA Member Benefits: 5:30-7:00 pm

Insurance 101: Protecting Your Financial Security

Being properly insured plays an essential role in protecting your financial security. How much do you understand about your auto and home insurance coverage? At this seminar, you will learn common insurance gaps that could put you at risk for significant financial loss.

You'll leave knowing:

- How gaps in your insurance coverage can be financially devastating.
- The most common, and most dangerous misunderstandings about insurance coverage.
- How to ensure that all you've worked hard for is properly protected.

Presented by WEA Member Benefits: 5:30-7:00 pm

Degrees Not Debt

This workshop will provide participants with a basic understanding of federal student loans, repayment plans and loan forgiveness programs necessary to independently consult with their loan service provider about the options most beneficial for them based on their individual financial situations.

This program has been developed by NEA and will be presented by WEAC Region 3: 5:30-7:30 pm
