

An Advent Sabbath with Mary the Maiden of Nazareth with Joseph her faithful Spouse

*Saturday, December 16, 2017
10 AM – 4 PM*

St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church Cartersville, Georgia

*directed by

Are you longing for a quiet moment in the midst of Christmas preparations to be still, catch your breath, and ponder the magnanimity of God's love in giving us Jesus, Emmanuel? If you are, we have a perfect way for you to get caught up in the peacefulness of Advent and the real meaning of Christmas!

An Advent Sabbath is an invitation to leave - for a little while - the hustle and bustle of the final days of Advent, to pray and reflect on Mary's response to the Spirit of God dwelling within her, on Joseph's devotion to the woman he loves, and on the mystery of Jesus' incarnation among us today. T'is indeed an opportunity not to be missed! It'll make your Christmas Merry indeed!

Sister Susan Arcaro and Sister Barbara Young are Cenacle Sisters living and ministering in the Archdiocese of Atlanta for twenty-five years. Their ministry takes them to parishes and peoples throughout North Georgia and beyond. They are no strangers to our parish since we have, in previous years, taste the richness of their ministry. Both Sisters are seasoned retreat directors, spiritual directors, and facilitators of adult spiritual enrichment programs.

To reserve a seat, please email Peggy Fritz at pjf41@att.net. Please put 'Advent Day of Reflection' in subject line. Include name(s) and contact information in email.
