Mark,

Have you ever considered how salvation in Christ is a glimpse of the freedom we will have in Heaven one day? We recently heard a pastor summarize life after death in three words: released, redeemed, and rejoicing. Those three words also explain the nature of thanksgiving.

Prayer Updates

Last month, we prayed for Vachan, who has been unable to speak since his childhood. We praise God that he and his parents are growing in their faith and attending a prayer group! Please continue to pray for his healing and for the entire family's salvation.

We also prayed in October for Adult Literacy students in Tripura state whose cultivation was disrupted by monsoons. Our partners in India share that many students suffered great loss, but they have begun winter cultivation and hope for a good upcoming harvest. Please continue to pray for them!

Lastly, we praised God last month for 34 anticipated baptisms. Now, we praise Him that the baptisms took place through the collective efforts of 10 Church Planters! Please continue to pray for the spiritual growth of these new believers
