HOUSE OF THE HOLY

As the Parsha opens, Hashem tells Moshe, "If you think I was close to Bnei Yisrael at Matan (the giving of the) Torah, pitch me a tent, 'cause I'm dwelling among Bnei Yisrael from now on." Here's what Hashem has in mind: While the Jews travel through the desert, living in temporary dwellings, Hashem, too, will travel the same way, dwelling in a temporary, travelling Mishkan, which will be packed up every time the Jews move on to a different camping ground. When the Jews are settled in Eretz Yisrael and build permanent homes, they will build a permanent dwelling for Hashem's Shechina (divine presence), the Bait Hamikdosh.

Moshe is up at the summit of Har (Mt.) Sinai. He doesn't know it, but some bad stuff is about to happen down below. There's major sinning sneaking up on the desert Sinai. Sinning that could destroy the bond between Hashem and Bnei Yisrael. Hashem knows He has to strengthen the bond now, before it is too late! The Mishkan, is the solution. Hashem tells Moshe all about this travelling Holy House that keeps Hashem's Shechina right smack in the middle of Bnei Yisrael. With the Shechina resting among the people, no nation will be able to say that Hashem abandoned Bnai Yisrael after

We made the Mishkan, as you will read
It was quite complicated, not an easy deed
Betzalel was most definitely the man
But I gave him a helping hand

Last Week:

One verse has all the letters of the Hebrew aleph-bet
It might be hard to find, it sure ain't no sweat
So look in Shemot in a place where the Jews did eat
And you might be able to accomplish this difficult feat
A- Exodus 16:16
