ALL THOSE ASHES

Each morning the Kohanim draw lots to determine who will be first to perform the daily rituals. The winner performs the terumat hadeshen (taking a portion of ashes). First he purifies himself in the mikva. Next, he puts on his priestly garments. Then he pours water from the Kiyor, (the washing basin), over his hands & feet. Next he takes a silver pan & climbs the ramp of the Mizbayach. From the previous day's ashes he takes a handful and places it into the vessel. Then he takes the pan to the east side of the ramp and pours out the contents in a designated spot. One of the miracles that occurred in the Bait Hamikdash was that these ashes would be swallowed up into the floor immediately. No trace of them would remain.

After the first pan of ashes are poured out, it's a "free-for-all" for the rest of these Kohanim as they rush up the ramp and empty the ashes of the Mizbayach. These ashes are piled in the center of the Mizbayach. This pile is called a Tapuach. It is considered a monument to the large amount of Korbanot that had been offered the day before.

As days go by, the Tapuach gets very large, excess ashes are taken to a place outside of the Mishkan. During the time of the Bait Hamikdash, these ashes are taken by a Kohain wearing old priestly garments, to a special spot outside the walls of Yerushalayim.

"Quote of the Week"

"When a person realizes he has faults, he is in a much better situation than one who does not realize it, since he can now work on improving himself."

MIDDLE RIDDLE

Yoni is away so it's just for fun this week!

What is the only Mitzvah in the Torah that can only be performed WITHOUT Kavana (intent)?

Last Week:

Jacob, Joshua, and Jonah all had these
Leading to great success, not always with ease
Other Jews had them, often before a war
But in the 2nd temple era they were no more

DID YOU KNOW?

Did you know many non-Jews believed (and some still sadly do) that Jews have horns!? This is based on a mistranslation in Exodus 34:35. It says there that light radiated off of the face of Moses. The Hebrew word for radiance is KARAN קרן but the Latin translators of the Torah read it as KEREN which spawned the ridiculous myth that Jews have horns under their keepahs. To make matters worse the great artist Michelangelo purposely made his famous statue of Moses with horns sprouting from his head. As this is obviously ridiculous and easy to prove false some scholars believe the "mistranslation" was done purposely to promote anti-Semitism.

MIDOT MATTER MOST:

NO MATTER HOW FAR YOUR ANGER GETS YOU, YOUR KINDNESS WILL GET YOU FURTHER.
