Cultural Competence Training

The Davis Group is a Madison, Wisconsin, consulting firm that offers a full range of diversity related services from diversity plans to recruiting and retention strategies. We are proud to be the preferred diversity services provider for the Madison Region Economic Partnership (MadREP).

On June 1, 2017, we will be offering local businesses and organizations the opportunity for their employees and leadership to attend cultural competence training that is positive, interactive, and focused on solutions. Each half-day session will have up to 30 participants and the cost will be $175/person. Ask about special pricing for non-profit organizations.

Here are some comments from recent participants in Davis Group sessions in Las Vegas, Orlando and Madison:

"This was by far my favorite session and they opened my mind to the world of inclusive programs and diversity in the workplace."

"Truly enlightening session. I will definitely take this session back and apply the knowledge I gained to my professional and personal life."

"This session far exceeded my expectations. Interactive sessions were so effective and eye opening. Wonderful! Most enjoyed session of the conference."

"My favorite session so far! Super interactive and engaging. Very difficult topics were made comfortable to discuss."

"This session was engaging, fun and informative! Everyone should take it."
