

Orange County Medical Association Physician of the Year Award

Now Accepting Nominations:
2017 OCMA Physician of the Year
DEADLINE: March 3, 2017

The Orange County Medical Association is now accepting nominations for the 2017 OCMA Physician of the Year. This award, which was established in 1983, recognizes a physician who, throughout his/her career, has exemplified what it means to be an accomplished physician. All OCMA members are encouraged to participate by nominating a fellow physician for his/her hard work and dedication, exceptional professional competence, and good rapport with patients. The award also acknowledges the physician for being a motivator, educator and community leader. If you would like to nominate a fellow physician colleague, please send your recommendation letter including:

- Name and title of nominee
- Description of the nominee's accomplishments and contributions. Supporting documents such as a CV, newspaper clippings, etc. are encouraged
- Name, title and signature of nominator

Nominees are not required to be OCMA members.

The winner will be announced at the OCMA General Membership Dinner.
