

Opus Agency a Team Without Limits

Client Spotlight

By Miles Fidino and Thomas Denning

The winner of The Oregonian's Top Workplaces award, six years in a row, this brand events and marketing agency has perfected the art of the team. Opus Agency uses a strategic, creative structure to organize and execute events and campaigns on a global scale. This group of 100+ individuals is unlike any other, this can be attributed to their dynamic collaboration and focus on customer success. Opus Agency's portfolio is inspiring to say the least. Their team has accomplished many diverse tasks from creating unique, user engaging exhibits that steal the show at Dell EMC World, to creating a video campaign for the annual Portland Timbers photobomb contest.

Portland Internetworks partnered with Opus Agency in August of this year. Providing a Fully Managed IT solution to their staff, and supporting the Opus Agency mission of creating success for their customers through strategic and operational excellence. Opus Agency works with some of the largest names in the technology world, who depend on them to develop experiences that exceed expectations. We are proud to be the IT Strategy and Support team of choice to support that mission, and we are excited to see what the future holds for both of our companies.
