

Nova Bartlett

Procurement Coordinator

Nova became part of the Portland Internetworks family as a Procurement Coordinator in August of 2017. Her core responsibilities include purchasing, tracking, receiving and invoicing the products and services Portland Internetworks provides. In her professional life before becoming part of the pdx.net team Nova directed fulfillment and logistics for a Portland based, world-class artisanal tea company, where she juggled priority and commerce flow. Her attention to, and love of, details and thoroughness enables Nova to account for what is often overlooked and then to create efficiencies from her discoveries. This specific skill set of keeping businesses operating at optimal capacity makes her perfect fit for her new work family.

Nova is the figure in black in the office; that will always be there to lend a hand, share a laugh or make a pun. When not making magic happen at Portland Internetworks, she enjoys riding and repairing motorcycles, engaging in detailed and competitive craftsmanship of all kinds and fostering interspecies household peace. Among other things, Nova collects vintage black and white sailor photos, taxidermy and Daruma. She once performed a Viking funeral for her dearly departed hermit crabs, der Baron Ludwig von Krabbekopf and DJ Krabbykrabkakes. Portland Internetworks is stoked to have Nova in her champion role on the team.
