Odorless turps

Bounty paper towels

Pale drying oil (preferred, but can use any drying medium)

1 to 2 inch china bristle brushes (he uses a shipmate angled 1 1/2 inch or 2 inch depending on what he can get. These are actually found in painting hardware stores. If can't be found, a regular 1" China bristle artist paint brush can be used.

Other brushes are 1/2" and 1/4".

Artists can use whatever kind they are used to.

NO cotton panels. He feels the paint doesn't move on them. Cotton canvas (stretched) is okay. Linen is fine either on a panel or stretched.

Thinner jar/can

Jar for medium

The Providence Art Club will provide easels.
