

Ultimate Parsha continued...

In that light, it is important to recognize and thank those at RMBA responsible for recent huge successes. Sophie Lee Landau directed our amazing school play Annie Get Your Gun, which debuted last night. Upper School General Studies principal Raquel Cedano and MS teachers Liat Goldstein, Janice Kusin, Peter Novick, and Jennifer Rosenzweig worked with our students to produce an incredible Middle School General Studies Fair. Our high school boys basketball team, led by Chris Cole, recently returned from NY where they were the Tier 3 runners up at the Saracheck tournament. Rabbi Ari Kellerman directed our amazing Middle School minimester, which concludes today.

Years ago at a memorial service for a colleague I was moved by the kind words spoken about this friend and simultaneously saddened that he was not around to hear such nice things spoken. From that point on I resolved to tell those I loved how important they are to me.

In the spirit of the thanksgiving offering, may we all endeavor to express our gratitude to those who have made a difference for the better in our lives.

Shabbat Shalom,

Paul S. Oberman
