

Applying an Anti-Racism and Anti-oppression Lens to Violence Prevention

Wednesday, March 1, 2017

Overview: The purpose of this meeting was to focus on structural violence and how intersectional, anti-oppression strategies can be applied to SCY's areas of focus: youth development, mental health services, gun violence prevention, justice system reform, and community investment.

Overall Meeting Participation:

Total Number Registered:	153
Attended:	97 (63%)
Attendees Who Completed Evaluation Form:	32 (33%)

As a result of this meeting, I have a better understanding of applying an anti-racism and anti-oppression lens to violence prevention:

	Response Tally	Response Percent
Strongly Agree	9	30%
Agree	19	63%
Disagree	2	7%
Strongly Disagree	0	0%

Knowledge and information gained from participation in this event:

	Response Tally	Response Percent
Exceeded My Expectations	10	35%
Met My Expectations	18	62%
Did Not Meet My Expectations	1	4%

Will the knowledge and information gained from participation in this event be useful/applicable to your work?

	Response Tally	Response Percent
Yes	23	77%
Somewhat	7	23%
No	0	0%

Have you attended SCY quarterly meetings, trainings, or other events before?

	Response Tally	Response Percent
No, this is my first	13	25%
Yes, on occasion	11	34%
Yes, on a regular basis	8	41%

How did you hear about this meeting:

	Response Tally	Response Percent
SCY newsletter	11	35%
Email invitation	13	42%
Indirectly through colleague	7	23%
SCY social media	0	0%
SCY website	0	0%
Other	0	0%

Summary of Evaluation Comments:

Which topics or aspects of the event did you find more interesting or useful?

- Actionable items to take anti-racism approach
- Panelists discussion was great
- Group work and small group discussions

"I enjoyed listening to the panelist talking about address[ing] the violence in our community by first addressing the root causes."

How do you think this event could have been improved?

- More about white privilege and the role of white people in activism
- More time for networking
- Youth participation and panelists
- Small group structure felt rushed
- More time and structure for networking

"Create an online space to encourage deeper, on-going learning, relationship building, solution innovation and public education."

Additional comments and suggestions:

- Great conversation
- Appreciate the organizing and work put in the meeting
- More lead time on events; announce sooner

"The topic was good and forced difficult, but much needed conversation."

"One of my favorite quarterly meetings yet!"