

Bio: Julia F. Weber, JD, MSW, Vice President, Insights and Innovations at coParenter, has spent her career developing innovative approaches to solving complex issues facing families, children, and communities. She pursued both of her degrees simultaneously and as a result, brings a cohesive and comprehensive perspective to family and legal issues. She is a mediator, and a member of the State Bar of California as well as an inactive member of the Missouri State Bar. Julia served as Supervising Attorney for the California Judicial Council at the Center for Families, Children & The Courts for 17 years. She also served for over 10 years as co-counsel to the Family and Juvenile Law Advisory Committee, lead staff to the Elkins Family Law Task Force, and staff to the Domestic Violence Practice and Procedure Task Force. Julia has worked on minor's counsel, children's involvement in court proceedings, and access to justice, diversity, and bias issues throughout her career. She teaches Domestic Violence Law at Golden Gate University School of Law in the fall semester.
